79th Southeastern Region Conference

Montgomery, Alabama

March 28th – 31st 2019

Southeastern Region Awards and Achievements

Sigma Service and Day of Impact

The Southeastern Region will engage in a day of service during the 79th Regional Conference. Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. will provide services to The Mercy House, a community ministry initiative of Common Ground Montgomery. The facility provides support for jobs, counseling, clothes closet and food pantry. The region will participate in various service projects that will forever change the City of Montgomery and leave an impact long after the women of Sigma Gamma Rho have departed.

All members and affiliates are asked to support YSC Agnes Hina's SIGMA CAREΣ initiative (please see information on page 9).

Members and affiliates will also have the ability to participate in a number of other service projects.

- 1) Computer Lab Setup – The SER will build a computer lab to assist clients with finding jobs. Volunteers will be needed to assist with the set-up of the lab and accessories to help make it stellar.
- 2) Clothes Closet Donation – Suit & Shoe donation to assist persons in need with obtaining appropriate interview attire to aide in the interview process. Sorors & affiliates are asked to bring new or gently used suits for donation. Suits are needed in all colors and sizes.

The Sigma Service & Day of Impact will also include ribbon cutting for the computer lab and assisting with serving meals and helping in the clothes closet. Sorors and affiliates are encouraged to choose a day of service activity to support our motto: Greater Service, Greater Progress.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. strives to strengthen communities wherever chapters are located by providing services that enhance and enrich the community. All sorors and affiliates are encouraged to register and participate in Sigma Service & Day of Impact at the 79th Southeastern Regional Conference. We have the ability to come together as One Sigma to help the people of this community who have experienced hardships and are moving towards reconstructing their lives. This will be an opportunity to provide a lasting and positive impact to the City of Montgomery, Alabama. Let's Elevate Sigma and transform the lives of the people in this community and leave a lasting impression on the City of Montgomery!

These awards will be reviewed and selected by independent committees

CHAPTER MARKETING COMPETITION

The Chapter Marketing Project is a project that provides an opportunity for undergraduate members of the Southeastern Region of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. to develop a positive image for themselves through media usage and marketing. They will utilize project management skills to plan and conduct a project to re-brand their chapter perception on campus. Chapters will evaluate the project's effectiveness by growth of attendance in participation of non-members in events, as well as, social media analytics which will be documented in the written report and presentation on the procedures of planning, implementing, coordinating and evaluating the project. The project must be from the current sorority year.

WRITTEN ENTRY OUTLINE

The project consists of two major parts: the written document and the oral presentation, which is to be given by chapter representatives at regional conference. The written document will account for 60 points, and the oral presentation will account for the remaining 40 of the total 100 points. Each chapter may have no more than 2 representatives participate in the oral presentation. All chapter representatives must present the project to the judges and be registered for regional conference. The body of the written entry does not have to be 8 pages, but must be limited to 8 numbered pages. This excludes the title page and the table of contents. The oral presentation may be a maximum 12 minutes in length, 2 minutes of the time is allotted for the judge's questions. The judge will evaluate the presentation, focusing on how the chapter representatives explain the use of project management skills, the effectiveness of public speaking and presentation skills and how well the chapter representatives respond to questions that the judge may ask during the presentation. All submissions must be approved by the advising graduate chapter in order to qualify.

TITLE PAGE. The first page of the written entry is the title page. It must include in any order, but is not limited to the following:

CHAPTER MARKETING PROJECT

Title of the project

Name of University

Names of presenters

Date

TABLE OF CONTENTS. The table of contents should follow the title page. The table of contents may be single-spaced and may be one or more pages long. The table of contents page(s) will not be numbered.

BODY OF THE WRITTEN ENTRY. The body of the written entry begins with Section I. Executive Summary, and continues in the sequence outlined here. The first page of the body is numbered "1" and all following pages are numbered in sequence. This outline must be followed. Points for each section are included on the Written Entry Evaluation Form.

Each section must be titled. Each section also has a deadline to help with the pacing of this project in order to be submitted by the March 1ST deadline.

I. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY (MAR.) – One-page description of the project

II. INTRODUCTION (DEC.)

A. Description of the local chapter, university and community

- B. Theme or campaign basis
- C. S.W.O.T Analysis

Written Entries will be judged for quality assurance prior to the Southeastern Regional Conference. All submissions will receive written notification of their standing to present. Submissions that meet the criteria will be invited to present to the judges at the regional conference. Those submissions deemed unsatisfactory will not be able to present.

PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

Prior to the presentation, the judge will evaluate the written portion of the entry. The major emphasis of the written entry is on the content. The chapter representatives will present the project to the judge in a 12-minute presentation worth 40 points. All representatives must be dressed in royal blue and gold business professional attire, preferably wearing the official sorority blazer. The presentation begins immediately after the introduction of the chapter representatives to the judge by the adult assistant. Each chapter representative must take part in the presentation. Each chapter representative may bring a copy of the written entry or note cards pertaining to the written entry and use as reference during the presentation. The chapter representatives may use the following items during the oral presentation:

1. No more than two (2) standard-sized posters
2. One (1) standard-sized tri-fold display board
3. One (1) desktop flip chart presentation
4. One (1) personal laptop computer or tablet

Only visual aids that can be easily carried to the presentation by the actual participants will be permitted, and the participants themselves must set up the visuals. No set-up time will be allowed. Easels will be provided. Participants must furnish their own materials and equipment. No electrical power or Internet connection will be supplied. Items such as flyers, brochures, pamphlets and business cards may be handed to or left with the judge. No food or drinks allowed.

COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT COMPETITION

The Community Service Project is a chapter project that provides an opportunity for undergraduate members of the Southeastern Region of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. to develop a better understanding of the role civic activities they have in society by making a contribution to a community service or charity. They will utilize project management skills to plan and conduct a project to benefit a community service or charity. Chapters will evaluate the project's effectiveness in meeting the stated goals and develop a written report and presentation on the procedures of planning, implementing, coordinating and evaluating the project. The project must be from the current sorority year.

WRITTEN ENTRY GUIDELINES

The project consists of two major parts: the written document and the oral presentation which is to be given by chapter representatives at regional conference. The written document will account for 60 points, and the oral presentation will account for the remaining 40 of the total 100 points.
